SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING
DIVISION OF SAFETY AND FIRE ENGINEERING

Master of Technology in Industrial Safety

PROGRAMME EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES (PEOs)

PEO1: To train students to be highly-skilled professionals in industrial safety and allied fields who can successfully analyse and solve complex problems related to safety.

PEO2: To enable graduates to carry out and disseminate innovative research work in academia / industry to enhance the knowledge base in occupational health, safety and environment protection.

PEO3: To prepare the post-graduate professionals in industrial safety with integrity, social responsibility and life-long independent learning ability.

PEO4: To provide students with opportunities to design systems, and components to meet specific needs and constraints through experiential learning.